

REQM: impact and celebration

A fourth conference for REQM schools

Canterbury Christchurch University
(main campus)

Saturday 25th February 2017

10am-4pm

*FREE to all REQM schools

*Another opportunity to hear about great practice and classroom focused research from other REQM schools

The REQM is designed to celebrate high quality RE. In this conference, where award holders will share their good practice and experiences, three keynote speakers will lead sessions to on the project's impact and its relationship to RE national developments:

Dr Bob Bowie

Faculty Director of Business Development Consultancy, Research & Knowledge Exchange
<http://canterbury.academia.edu/RobertBowie>

Rudolf Elliott Lockhart, Chief Executive Officer of the Religious Education Council

<http://religiouseducationcouncil.org.uk>

Linda Rudge, REQM Project manager <http://www.reqm.org/about/about-us>

Workshops will be led by schools engaged in REQM research and Gold award holders

* A free place to all schools achieving an REQM award is available this year through a generous grant from the Hockerill Foundation. Please see accompanying e-mail for details of how places will be allocated.

 For feedback from the 2016 conference see: <http://www.reqm.org/news/2016-02-16/third-re-quality-mark-conference>

What do I do next?

Please book your place by email to Sylwia on admin@reqm.org

Deadline Feb 1st 2017

www.reqm.org

